

Worms

March Featured Presentation

Students will have the chance to work with the worms.

Academic Content Standards

Kindergarten:

Living things are different from non-living things. Living things have certain characteristics.

1st:

Living things can only survive in environments that support their needs.

2nd:

Living things interact with their environment.

3rd:

Offspring resemble parents and each other. Traits and structures of animals, relationship between individual and environment.

4th:

Behavior patterns, habitat and anatomy.